BACKGROUND

Dr. Alley is an effective and seasoned academic administrator who was appointed, effective July 1, 2006, to a two year term as Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost without a search in order to provide administrative continuity, given the departure of the former Chancellor Carol Tomlinson Keasey and Former Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost David B. Ashley during the fall and summer of 2006, respectively.

Chancellor Kang has appointed Dr. Alley for an additional one year term of service and seeks approval of this appointment and salary. A national search for Dr. Alley's successor is underway. During the additional one year term of service, Dr. Alley will continue to apply his extensive knowledge of the campus to the post of Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost.

Dr. Alley joined UC Merced in 2002 as Vice Chancellor for Research and Dean of Graduate Studies, and as a founding Professor of Biology, School of Natural Sciences. Dr. Alley has built the research administration infrastructure and led development of the campus' first graduate programs. He has also initiated an effective collaboration with other UC campuses and Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory.
